

SUNI BLACKWELL

Suni Blackwell earned his Bachelor's degree of Science in Liberal Studies, Professional Studies from West Chester University in 2003 and graduated Cum Laude. Suni went on to complete a Master's degree in 2007, in Education in Sport & Recreation Administration from Temple University while interning with the Philadelphia 76ers as a statistician, and working for Delta Community Supports, Inc. as a social worker.

Suni has worked with the Philadelphia Housing Authority and the Chester Upland School District as a School Community Climate Manager and Anti-Bullying Compliance Officer. He has also been the Dean of Students and Athletic Director at Cristo Rey Philadelphia High School where he focused on maintaining policies, procedures, and student records while leading the health/fitness and athletics department.

Presently, Suni is the Director of Wellness, Athletics & Recreation at Delaware County Community College and President of C.B.S. United, Inc. a 501©(3) non-profit organization.

SHARIFF JUSTIN BLACKWELL

Shariff Justin Blackwell attended West Chester University on a football Scholarship and graduated in May 2002 with a Bachelor's Degree in Sociology. After graduation, Shariff began working in the Philadelphia school district where he found he had a keen interest in the mental health field. He worked for Resources for Human Development in various positions in behavioral health for ten years and soon after, completed his Master's degree in Marriage and Family Counseling from Liberty University. Shariff cherishes earning this degree as it was a promise he made to his late mother.

Shariff is currently the Vice President of CBS United, Inc. which is a non-profit organization dedicated to serving the Chester city community in many ways such as: mentoring youth, donating school supplies, sponsoring toy drives, conducting juvenile diabetes research, and providing annual scholarships.

JAMES LINDSAY

James Lindsay attended West Chester University and graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice in May 1997. While at West Chester University, James was a peer mentor for the Academic Development Program, and a starting running back for the football team where he received first and second team honors.

James is a Reentry Parole Officer Specialist who assists those that find themselves incarcerated due to criminal behavior and actions. He has been a parole officer in Chester County, PA for 20 years and has positively impacted thousands of lives and families that experience incarceration. Aside from being a parole officer, James also runs his own company; Studio 9 Enterprise, LLC., which is a Sports and Entertainment Management and Production company. He also facilitates drums circles for community events and parties.

James is also the North American Sports Media Director for the World Boxing Foundation which sanctions professional boxing matches around the world. Actively, James has been networking with American and Chinese officials in an attempt to bring professional boxing to China in tournament form.

James is also the head basketball coach for his son's basketball team and continues to support his community.